

The DYNAMICS OF WORKSHOPING

Common Context		Common Model - Building
Rational Perception		Inclusive Brainstorming
The Essential Variables	The Thinking process	The Relevant Relations	The Exhaustive data
The Social Processes	The Logical Procedure	The Internal Relation	The obvious data
The Common Vocabulary	The Workshop Plan	The external relations	The unexpected data
Ontological "IS"	Self-Concept Value Screen	Historical	Historical "IS"
The taken for granted universal structures of reality and the corporate conceptions of operation.	The taken for granted corporate stance preceeding and overruling all attempts to articulate it rationally.	The Historical activity organized in a delimited arena and subjecting the corporate mind to the total experience of the group	The brainstorming activity organized to honor the brainstorming from the perspective of the rational-evaluational context of the group.
		The Meta-Rational Gestaltting	The Flash Beckoning
		The Data ordering	The Intuitive brooding
		The Visual arrangement	The Conclusion Testing
			Illustrating "IS" IS