

IMBALANCES

A graphic way to display the social dynamics that are most influential (strongest) and those that are weakest (least influential). The imbalances can be shown at any level of the triangle.

