THE CURRICULUM

RELIGIOUS STUDIES

RS-I THE THEOLOGICAL REVOLUTION

A prerequisite course focusing on the basic spirit questions in the post-modern world; problems of authentic self-understanding, decision-making, vocational significance, human relations, and creative participation in civilization. The aim is to enable the participants to think through for themselves who they are and how they can involve themselves in the present age.

CHRISTIAN MEMORY RS-IIA THE HISTORICAL CHURCH

A study in the theology of the fathers of Christianity amid the milieu of their eras. Writings by men of faith are scrutinized for the Christian community during the ancient, medieval, and modern periods.

RS-IIB THE NEW TESTAMENT

A study of the witness to the Word in history made by the early Christian community. The perspectives of John, the Synoptic writers, and Paul toward the event of Jesus Christ are examined together with the basic cultural heritage of the Greek, Hebrew, and Gnostic life styles.

RS-IIC THE OLD TESTAMENT

A study of the understanding of God present in historical living as known to the people of Israel. The life stances taken in the wisdom writings, the prophetic pronouncements and the covenant law are probed in the context of the historical background of the ancient world.

REFORMULATION MODELS RS-IIIA THE LOCAL CHURCH

An analysis of the new image of the Church as mission to history. The interdynamics of the parish, local congregation, and cadre are examined in depth, and practical models are forged in workshops on witnessing and justifying love, worship, study, and enabling discipline.

RS-IIIB THE ECUMENICAL MOVEMENT

An analysis of the people of God in history as they are manifested in the faiths of today. Papers from Protestantism, Catholicism, Judaism, nationalism, communism, and humanism are used to explore the issues and dilemmas of spirit men in the universal human community.

RS-IIIC THE WORLD RELIGIONS

An analysis of the human images by which people live out of their distinct cultural inheritance. The articulated visions of cultural leaders in civilization today are analyzed in order to reveal the unique gifts of Africa, the Far East, Sub-Asia, the Middle East, Latin America, and the West.

CULTURAL STUDIES

CS-I THE CULTURAL REVOLUTION

An introductory course on the post-modern world as found in its scientific common sense, its urban style of life, and its secular mood which requires a revolutionary response, skill at model-building, and a decision to act concretely to renew our social context. The aim is to cultivate people of wide vision trained to perform the practical tasks demanded for full humanness in our world.

CULTURAL WISDOM CS-IIA PSYCHOLOGY AND ART

A study of cultural wisdom relative to understanding individual human beings. The science of psychoanalysis is examined in its biological, social, and rational schools in tandem with the impressionism, expressionism, and intentionalism of the arts.

CS-IIB SOCIOLOGY AND HISTORY

A study of cultural wisdom pertaining to the social dynamics in the human community. The science of sociology involving analytical models for the economic, political, and cultural aspects of society, is over against history, the objective, rational, and existential appropriations of humanness.

CS-IIC NATURAL SCIENCE AND PHILOSOPHY

A study of cultural wisdom regarding the comprehensive grasp of human existence. The natural sciences of biology, physics, and mathematics are placed in relation to the philosophical approaches present in analytical, existential, and metacultural intellectual postures.

RESPONSIBILITY MODELS

CS-IIIA THE INDIVIDUAL AND THE FAMILY

An analysis of domestic life, the marriage covenant, family structures, and the new image of the family as mission. Through workshops new models are created for the roles of the sexes, the budgeting of life expenditure, and the symbolic relationship of the generations.

CS-IIIB THE COMMUNITY AND THE POLIS

An analysis of the structures in the inner city, suburbia, and outlying communities as segments in the metropolitan world. Model-building methodologies are used to grasp a vision for local economic, political, and cultural reformulation.

CS-IIIC THE NATION AND THE WORLD

An analysis of the situation around the globe economically, politically, and culturally. The problems, goals, and strategies for the future world are brought together in the creation of models for a responsible citizenry.

PLC PARISH LEADERSHIP COLLOQUY

The Parish Leadership Colloquy is an intensive involvement with the twentieth century theological revolution as it has reformulated the stance of faith for contemporary man, and as it has become the imperative to renew the church in our time. Set into eight sessions, the course moves through the Church's prior task of clarifying the Word in the post-modern era to its present struggle to pour its theological wisdom into new sociological constructs which can effectively reformulate the Church. On this new edge of the Church concern the PLC is specifically aimed at providing Church leaders with practical tools, methods, parish and local congregation models for the renewal of the Church.

SPECIAL PRACTICES COURSES IMAGINAL EDUCATION

The global educational crisis as reflected in the local school is the context for an intensive analysis of image reformulation, comprehensive curriculum development, and the vision of education for humanness.

DYNAMICAL SOCIOLOGY

A study of practical social methodologies for structural reformulation of urban social services. Local community problems are analyzed in the context of the vision of a more just society.

ADVANCED TRAINING THE INSTITUTE OF CULTURAL AFFAIRS

The Institute of Cultural Affairs conducts an intensive eight-week Academy of Movement Theory and Practices every quarter in Chicago and periodically in other locations across the globe. The first international Academy was held in Singapore in the summer of 1969. Write to the Institute of Cultural Affairs, 3444 Congress Parkway, Chicago, Illinois 60624 for further information.
