

THE MEMORIALS 1982-1983

I. INTENSIFYING HDZ PREPARATION

In the arena of regional strategy it is the intent of the Global Order in the year 1982-1983 to involve regions in common local research toward illuminating HDZ location, strategic approaches and probes by conducting Regional Strategy Practicums in every active region.

II. REGIONALIZING IERD PARTICIPATION

In the arena of mass declaration it is the intent of the Global Order in the year 1982-1983 to engage every region in preparation for the IERD by organizing a National Steering Committee in each participating nation and engaging them in the promotion of Rural Development Symposia, projects selection and documentation, and funding local and global costs.

III. INTEGRATING EDGE RESEARCH

In the arena of participative research it is the intent of the Global Order in the year 1982-1983 to engage every region in edge research that intensifies the dialogue with our times and provides input to the Global Research Gatherings by initiating a two year series of 1000 local thinktanks and implementing a global interchange mechanism.

IV. FOCUSING GLOBAL RESEARCH

In the arena of practical research it is the intent of the Global Order in the year 1982-1983 to further our research into the world's edge and our practical experience by initiating a two year series of ten Global Research Gatherings focused on strategic missional arenas and hosted in six continents.

V. ACCELERATING LEADERSHIP SKILLS

In the arena of mobile forces it is the intent of the Global Order in the year 1982-1983 to accelerate the acquisition of practical twentieth century skills of the emerging global priorship by launching a pilot Movemental Operational Skills Training (MOST) programme in Maharashtra.

VI. CONSOLIDATING AREAL CONFIGURATIONS

In the arena of areal strategy it is the intent of the Global Order in the year 1982-1983 to position ourselves for dramatic expansion in the future by reducing the number of house and nexus locations in North America, Europe and SEAPAC and by reconfiguring assignments to meet global missional demands.

VII. EXPANDING GLOBAL FORCES

In the arena of the symbolic order it is the intent of the Global Order in the year 1982-1983 to prepare 100 additional globally assignable families by inviting families to participate in sojourn and intern programmes.

VIII. ENSURING ORDER SELF-SUFFICIENCY

In the arena of economic stability it is the intent of the Global Order in the year 1982-1983 to re-empower our self-support capacity, undergird the ability of every order member to participate in the self-support task, and guard the order funds by emphasising innovative corporate modes of self-support and entering into lucrative economic ventures.

IX. STAGING HDZ ACTIVATION

In the arena of HDZ dynamics it is the intent of the Global Order in the year 1982-1983 to intensify our direct research into the coordinated activation of local communities, social structures and resurgent forces through conducting empowerment treks, exchanging models and personnel and intensifying the four sector programming and training in 10 HDZ pilots and three human development labs.

X. BROADENING ACADEMY PARTICIPATION

In the arena of movement formation it is the intent of the Global Order in the year 1982-1983 to intensify Academy transposition and provide for broader participation in the Academy by the global movement through conducting two academies — one in Chicago in Quarter II and one in the Philippines in Quarter IV

XI. EMPOWERING ORDER FORMATION

In the arena of corporate resolve it is the intent of the Global Order in the year 1982-1983 to deepen our covenantal and vocational journey by holding Order days, conducting vocational Journey Labs and establishing a July 1983 preparation task force in May/June.
